The Story Box Release Form

"I, _____, give permission to Kevin Cordi, and those connected with The Story Box Project permission to use my story for publication or promotion.

If published credit will be given to the author and efforts will be made to provide a complimentary copy of the book. (We need to check with future publishers.)

This project is designed to help us share our stories around the world. Please take part in adding your voice to the voice we all know, the voice of stories. Every country and culture have their stories, we encourage you to share yours with the world.

These stories can be folktales, original stories, story collections, or almost any story you want to share.

The Story Box will already be traveling in November but we will send additional work for the Box to where the Box is currently located and we would love to include your work.
